

Ram Nation Newsletter

Announcements

- ❖ Meet our Indian Club Officers and Royalty (pictured above). President - Fred Back Bone, Vice-President - Terrel Alden (not pictured), Secretary - Vestal Good Luck, Treasurer - Lexi Hogan. Royalty, Miss Little Big Horn College - Jeanea "Nai Nai" Wyles, Teen Miss Little Big Horn College - Caelyn Plainfeather, Jr. Miss Little Big Horn College - Samantha Pickett, Tiny Tot Little Big Horn College - Michaelleen Dust (Not Pictured).
- ❖ Enrollment for the LBHC Fall 2023 Semester is at 385. Go Rams!
- ❖ Students, if you still have not completed your FAFSA. Go see Beverly or Lisa at the Financial Aid Office.
- ❖ The American Indian College Fund scholarship deadline is October 12th, 2023 at 5 pm.
- ❖ It's not too late for the 100 mile challenge. Sign up is available at the Health and Wellness Center front desk, it's free. Join the 100 mile club and get some cool new gear.
- ❖ Check out the student organizations if you haven't already. It's not too late to join, keep a look out for meeting announcements. LBHC Indian Club is up and going with new officers and royalty selected.
- ❖ Also keep in mind that midterms are this month. If you need a tutor, Title III and/or student services department can assist you on acquiring you a tutor. Located in the SUB.
- ❖ Library hours are from Mon-Thurs 8:00 am to 5:30 pm. On Fridays, 8:00 am to 12:00 pm. (Hours may change during midterm week.)

Apsaalooké Word of the Month.

Isáahkawuatee (aa)

N-PROP (personal name)

Old Man Coyote

Crow Dictionary, 1st Ed, (2022).

Quick Calendar for Month of October

- October 12th, 2023, Flu Shot Clinic in SUB Lounge, from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. Free and open to the public.
- October 20th, 2023, Staff meeting in SUB conference room, officer elections will be held.
- October 23-26, 2023, Student midterm exams.
- October 31st, 2023, Halloween!

Student Spotlight!

By Lorna Little Owl

Francine H. Morrison

Every semester a student spotlight will be selected by the LBHC Academic Dean and Faculty. This fall semester of 2023 they have selected Francine H. Morrison. Francine has shown excellence discipline in her academic studies. She maintains a high GPA, good class attendance, and is active in student organizations; and fundraising events. Ms. Morrison is set to graduate from Little Big Horn College in the spring of 2024. She will be receiving her Associates degree in Business Administration and 1 year certificate in Tribal Government.

In a brief interview with Ms. Morrison with some Q&A, Ms. Morrison gave insight to her life and education.

Q. Tell us a little about yourself?

A. Ms. Morrison: "I got my HS Diploma, I married young, worked in HWY construction for many years, worked for BIA and the Crow Tribe as well. I raised my kids and my grandkids. My grandkids are grown up now so I decided to come to back to school."

Q. What made you choose LBHC?

A. Ms. Morrison: "Alda Good Luck (Title III Outreach Coordinator), she encouraged me to enroll for classes. She helped me through the enrollment process."

Q. What do you like best at LBHC?

A. Ms. Morrison: "The instructors. They are very good at teaching and helpful."

Q. What are your future plans after you graduate from LBHC?

A. Ms. Morrison: "Work for the Crow Tribe of Indians, and use my education to assist with business operations."

Q. Do you have any words of advice for the other college students at LBHC?

A. Ms. Morrison: "Be in class every day, stay in class, and study hard."

Q. How do you feel about being pick by the LBHC Faculty as this semester's student spotlight?

A. Ms. Morrison: "I'm surprised and at a loss for words"

Ms. Morrison will receive a certificate and gas voucher as an award for being chosen as LBHC's Student Spotlight. Good Luck with classes this year Francine. We are all cheering for you here at LBHC. Keep up the good work.

Meet our newest LBHC Faculty

Tucker Zingg

Bachelor's in business administration with a minor in small business management.

Graduated from WyoTech with a degree in Automotive Mechanic. Received a diploma from BSC (Bismarck State College) in auto mechanics through high school for 2500 hours of experience.

Teaching the Heavy Equipment Operations and CDL driving programs for LBHC.

Eric M. Castro

Montana State University-Billings

Environmental Science with a focus on environment biology

Teaching in the science department with Sara P. on an environmental research program collecting samples. As well as data for a collaboration with Rocky mountain science research facility.

Kirt LaForge

Montana State University Billings
December 2022

Bachelors of Social Science in Environmental studies

Ag Director / Program coordinator of the LBHC Agriculture Department

Levi Yellowmule

Bachelors of Science in Liberal Studies.

Currently enrolled at MSU-
Bozeman Graduate Program of Native
American Studies.

Teaching a combination of human services and crow studies courses for LBHC.

